Provincial Step 1 Update

We are pleased to announce the following changes at St. Francis of Assisi Church:

- Weekday Mass will continue to be celebrated every Wednesday and Thursday at 9:00am and Friday at 12:00pm following Adoration at 11:00am with a capacity of 15% (47 parishioners).
- We will celebrate weekend Mass on Saturday at 5:00pm & Sunday at 10:00am with 15% capacity.
- For anyone that is vulnerable or not comfortable participating in the church, you are welcome to listen to Mass in the church parking lot on radio station 95.5 FM. Communion will be distributed.
If you are planning to attend in this manner, we ask that you let us know (via email). The minister of communion will stand at the west end of the entrance and if anyone wishes to receive, please approach with your mask on and distanced. If you are unable, due to mobility, the minister of communion will go to your vehicle.
- The parish office continues to be closed. Please email office@stfrancisnewcastle.ca if required.

Words of Pope Francis

How often we leave the Lord in a corner, at the bottom of the boat of life, to wake Him only in a moment of need! Let us ask for the grace of a faith that never tires of seeking the Lord, of knocking at the door of his heart.

Spouses Corner

Dr. Willard Harley, a noted psychologist and author, when looking for the key to love in marriage, found that it is all about deposits in our love bank. When we associate good feelings with a person, we deposit 'love notes', but when we associate bad feelings with that person, we withdraw love notes. In the early stages of a relationship, both people make lots of deposits and as a result fall in love.
All too often, after a few years or more of marriage we begin to make too many withdrawals: we stop complimenting each other; we criticize each other in public; we spend less time together as a couple as children arrive. Romantic love changes because we forget to make love deposits. The largest deposits in our love banks occur when we have our emotional needs met. Try making some deposits into your spouse's love bank and you will reap some great rewards!

We all want marriages that are strong, fulfilling, and happy.
One way to help this happen is to celebrate your marriage.
Take some time to remember what is good and to bring it to the forefront of your thinking. Here are a few ideas: tell your spouse you love them every day; give a 'just-because' gift; toast each other with a glass of wine or champagne; get your picture taken, just the two of you; walk holding hands; meet someplace dressed up. Little things can go a long way in reminding ourselves that love is right before our eyes!
